EASTERN LEAGUE IS WEAK

CLUBS NOT ABLE TO PAY BIG SAL-ARIES CAUSED BY THE WAR.

President Powers Censured Because He Urged the Fight Against American Association.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NEW YORK, July 12.-A statement has been made by a party well informed in baseball matters that several of the minor leagues are in financial distress, and if they finish the present season it will cause the owners of the clubs to go deep into Totals 6 10 27 7 2 | their pockets to cover the losses.

The Eastern League is now in such distress that it is causing consternation in minor league circles. It is a known fact | bases and in all-around work Indianapolis | that most of the clubs in that league are Two-base hits-Beck, Crawford. Stolen big losers because of the high salaries it base-Moran. Double plays-Beckley to has had to pay as a result of its fight with the American Association, which is an orby pitched ball-By Thielman, 2. Struck out | ganization established on independent principles, and which refuses to join the minor leagues in a plan to keep salaries down to a limit desired by the National Association of Minor Leagues.

Well-posted baseball men who were familiar with the financial condition of the Eastern League shook their heads when President Powers's organization launched the wall. A man familiar with the conditions in the American Association was in New York this week, and stated positively that the Association had done even better than it had hoped for, and that every club in that organization was in good shape and would finish without a break.

The Eastern League's outlook is not nearly so bright, and it is freely predicted by persons on the inside that the Eastern League will be compelled to transfer a couple of its clubs, and several others will have to stand a loss far beyond their financial resources, which means disbandment of these clubs. Newark is a loser, and the stopping of Sunday ball in Rochester and Left on bases-Chicago, 7; Philadelphia, other places is a severe blow to the aiready weak clubs. The financial difficulties of the Eastern League are said to have caused considerathat circuit and Pat Powers, who has served the League as its president for the past ten years. The report is that Powers encouraged the club owners to pay the large salaries demanded by the players last spring, assuring them that the Amersuccess, and that just so soon as there was a break in the ranks of its Western rival the league would meet and cut the players' salaries in two. With the American Assoclation out of the way there would be no recourse for the players, as every other league, outside of the American and Na-Totals 3 6 27 18 1 Totals 0 7 24 15 0 | tional, is under the minor league agreement There would be no place where .0 0 0 3 0 0 0 0 8-3 these players could go, and they would

The continued prosperity of the American Association in the face of President Powers's predictions is causing some of the Eastern League club owners to ask their chief executive where they are going to "get off." With no chance to cut salaries, as planned, it is understood that several of the clubs have notified President Powers that they will not be able to stand the pace to the close of the season. up the sponge" right now is the fear of losing their guarantee to play out the sea-When the Eastern was reorganized Pat Powers (the same man who dropped into Indianapolis last spring with the Western League delegation and tried to induce Manager Watkins to jump his Indianapolis club to the Western) circulated a tremendous lot of "hot air" among the magnates. He told them that the American would not live after July 4 and its death may occur before that. In view of such things, it would be best for the Eastern, he said, to pay big salaries to men who might go to the American Association. The club owners took in all the fairy tales and high salaries were paid. Look at the result! The Eastern is really in a deplorable condition and to play out the season will mean the loss of thousands of dollars. The baseball pirate, O'Brien, who was caught red-handed here last week, admitted that several of the Eastern League cities are not drawing enough money to pay the guarantee of $75 a day to visiting clubs This will mean a new arrangement of the circuit, a total failure or the loss of thousands of dollars. The fact that the American has weathered the storm and is in better condition than any organization outside the National or American leagues is very exasperating to the minor leagues.

The continued prosperity of the American Association has been a painful thorn in the breasts of the men who hoped to wreck the organization. The fact that O'Brien, of Buffalo, came to Indianapolis last week to try and induce Indianapolis and Columbus players to jump, is a sign that the minors are trying to make one final effort to disrupt the Association. The minors hoped to secure a few players from each of the Association clubs and in this way cause a loss, but the players seem to be a little too wise, or at least nine out of ten of them have shown good judgment in turning deaf ears to the flattering inducements that have been thrown in their paths. The American Association is in good financial condition and will go through the season without a break. Contract jumpers are not wanted in this organization and the Association has suffered but little by men who have been dishonorpicked out three of the locals' seven safe able enough to jump their contracts and ones, and the work of Burns and Owens at | go to clubs where they will probably have second and short. The visitors seemed par- to do a heap of scratching for the salaries tial to two-basers, and of their dozen hits promised them. Some players have been five were of the double variety. On the offered fancy salaries and accepted. It would be interesting to know how many fines have been assessed against them when they go to draw their salaries or if they won't be told that they will have to submit to a cut. XXX

> There is trouble in the Southern League, but this is not at all surprising, for the time is drawing near for many disruptions in the leagues that have engaged in despicable business methods. Manager Frank is having troubles over St. Vrain and is threatened with suspension by the association of minor leagues. President Nicklin and Evans, of Memphis, are contract jumpers, and if they are found to be they will be suspended. Babb has not played good ball since jumping to Memphis, and it looks as if his troubles were just begianing. No one in Indianapolis will wish him good luck. Such men as Babb should be forced to walk home from Memphis and never be given another opportunity to play in fast company.

The American Association race is an interesting one, with Louisville and Indianapolis setting a fast pace. The Colonels have the best of it at the present time, but the Hoosiers are holding the pace and a lively time is expected when the two teams Two-base Hits-Owens (2), O'Brien, Coul- meet at Washington Park for a series, beginning next Friday. The championship season is just a little more than half over, and while the race seems to be between Louisville and Indianapolis it must be remembered that the Eastern clubs must take two more trips West, and some strange things may happen. Manager Watkins is taking no chances, as was demonstrated when he hunted for new players. Matthews has developed into a good utility catcher, and Sheehan will help out at third until Woodruff is able to get back in the game. Then Sheehan can be carried in case of another accident. The five pitchers are in good condition, everything considered, and the Hoosiers should more than hold their own from now on.

John T. Brush made a statement in Indianapolis a short time ago to the effect that the National League clubs would not hesitate to secure any players they wanted from the American League if they could get them. When he made this statement Mr. Brush evidently had in mind the scheme of the New York club to get Mc-Graw from Baltimore. If McGraw has any managerial ability left at all he should be able to do better with the Glants than has been done of late. While it is said that McGraw will not induce any of the Baltimore players to jump to New York, it would not be surprising to hear of several desertions before long. The desertion of McGraw will have a bad moral effect upon the American League if nothing else, but the National League is upheld in its action because the American League was the first to inaugurate the practice of inducing players to jump contracts.

Schaeffer was loudly cheered by the spectators when it was announced that he had established six new records. Two other events were on the programme, one of which was a handicap at 110 yards. This was a very close contest and was won by J. A. Ruddy, of the Knickerbocker Athletic Club, by six feet in 1:22 3-5. In the novice race, at 110 yards, H. C. Deloiselle, unattached, of this city, finished first easily by ten yards, three feet separating the next three men. De Loiselle was protested on account of his having won a third prize at a swimming contest last year, and the protest will be considered within the next two weeks by a committee of the A. A. U.

Golf at Riverside Park.

To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal: While all of this agitation is on concerning whether or not fees should be charged to golf players at Riverside Park I want to call attention to one great injustice percourse with one set of clubs. It is a common occurrence for two, three or four people to play with one set of clubs, thus holding back many players who are playing a legitimate game. YOUNG HANDICAP AT WASHINGTON PARK WON BY ARGREGOR.

Beat Scarlet Lilly a Length in Rattling Finish-Results of Other Running Races.

CHICAGO, July 12 .- Argregor dissipated the idea that a horse cannot come from the East a few days before a long-distance race and win by capturing the Young handicap at Washington Park to-day, beating the best field of horses of all ages that have started in any race at the present meeting. Argregor has been in town but three days, hardly time, according to all tradition, to become acclimated, but still long enough to trim the field that contested against him. Six Shooter, the winner of the Great Western, and as in that event, the top-heavy favorite, loaded with 120 pounds, was prominent twice during the journey. Scarlet Lily, the rank outsider, with Helgeson up, went to the front at the start and reached the stand a length and a half to the good with Six Shooter, Jiminez, Hunter Raine and Wild Pirate chasing her, heads apart as named. The Lily mare added another length of daylight between herself and the struggling field behind her. Rounding the clubhouse turn cisco. Swinging for home Scarlet Lily still showed a margin of a half length over Argregor training for some time and news from their and by dint of hard work on the part of training quarters in California state they | Helgeson maintained the lead until within twenty yards of the wire, where Argregor caught her and in the final strides moved away from her easily, winning by a length. Hunter Raine, who hung a bit at the last turn, came again and raced the Lily mare to a nose. The race was truly run and the C. T. Boots, the owner of Argregor, nearly made the victory in the handicap a double one by running second with Cougar in the fourth race, a selling affair at one mile and half a furlong. Ransch, who had the mount on Cougar, attempted to make a runaway race of it, but could not stall but will be flerce from start to finish. Fistic off Artena's rush. Favorites Defeated.

Bronze Wing, 7 to 1.

ST. LOUIS, July 12.-Favorites were bowled over in the seven races at Delmar to-day, three second choices and four horses at long odds receiving first honors. The Gasconade, a selling sweepstakes for three-year-olds, was won handily by Helen round bout on the night of the Jeffries- | Print, the favorite, after getting off badly and meeting with considerable interference, besides being compelled to go around other horses. Running in the turn for home there was a general clog up, and as the field straightened for the run to the wire there was a big bumping match between the leading horses, in which the favorite apparently took no part. Helen Print was pounds the better horse, and she won going away by a length from Jordan, which was half a length before Father Wenker. The judges decided that Father Wenker and Helen Print were guilty of foul riding and disqualified them, placing Jordan first, Sambo second and Buccleuth third.
